Hundreds Attend Home Opening

About 500 people attended opening and dedication services Sunday afternoon at the new Cameron Nursing Home.

Co - owners William Watkins snipped the ribbon as the entranceway of the new facility and hundreds of visitors toured the 14 - room fireproof structure at 700

Visitors toured the brightly painted rooms, kitchen and reception areas of the new home. The owners met the hundreds of visitors who registered as they entered.

FIREPROOF STRUCTURE They saw a concrete, fireproof structure that has 14 rooms, living - recreation rooms and kitchen. Hospital beds and bedroom furniture were already in place.

The new facility is centrally heated and airconditioned. And it was constructed under regulations of the Texas Health Dept., Austin.

West Compares Plans

A Staff Feature

He sat down with deliberation. And he went right to the point, checking his notes before he spoke. Once in a while he would look away, searching for the phrase that best suited his ideas.

This was J. H. West, describing his interpretation of differences between the proposed Freeman Farm Bill and a proposal from the Texas Farm Bureau.

West is president of Texas Farm Bureau. He was in Cameron last week to address an annual convention of the Milam Farm Bureau. About 450 people heard his speech last Thursday night.

But he granted an interview Friday morning on the differences between the Texas farm group's proposal and that of the Kennedy Administration.

"The basic difference between the proposals is philosophical," West said.

COMPULSORY BILL

"The Administration proposes a compulsory bill. We propose a voluntary bill."

Then he compared the proposals, first that forwarded by Sec. of Agriculture Freeman.

"First it has a compulsory program for wheat, reducing the national quota from 55 million acres to 41 million acres. The 15 - acre producer would be still unrestricted by law," he said.

"It forwards a three - price system: one support price for domestic grain for food, a second price for export grain, somewhat lower; a third lower price for domestic feed," he said.

He commented: "This proposal would create a black market situation for it would be hard to keep up with wheat. And for the first time, it provides for criminal liability, making it a felony to overproduce."

Then he turned to the second Administration proposal: this on feed grains -- maize, oats and others, excepting possibly rye.

"Again," he said, "there is a mandatory reduction or a penalty in money for overproduction. It would mean a high price on stock feed and probably freeze production patterns. It would demand severe policing."

Then he touched on the third Administration point on dairying: "The Freeman proposal recommends base allotments, to be determined by past production. There would be a penalty of up to $274 per 100 for overproduction of quota. Allotments would be under ASC control for the first time."

"This creates a problem," he opined. "If there is an overage of milk, it would probably be fed to calves, pigs. Coupled with higher feed costs, this would be a serious problem to the livestock industry."

Finally he said the Administration provision to plan rural recreation sites would take valuable property off tax rolls and the costs would be charged to agriculture.

GOVERNMENT GROWTH

During this review, he said: "I've seen more government growth in the last year than in my whole life."

His enthusiasm rose when he explained the Texas Farm Bureau proposal:

"First, it is voluntary. And the Farm Bureau wishes to continue the current soil conservation program which now has 26 million acres in the program nationally. Two million are due to come out from program this year," he said.

"Second, we would like to see the government accept bids for land to be retired -- a whole farm could be retired -- but limit the amount of retired land by the township," he continued.

"And third, if a fellow gets price supports, he would be required to put out of production a per centage of his cultivated land, the amount to be determined by the Secretary of Agriculture, to bring up the national total to 70 million acres," West said.

"It is possible to call for bids and get another 20 million acres on a bid basis, leaving 25 million acres which would need to be reduced."

"For example, if a man had 100 acres, he would contribute 10, leaving 90 on which he could produce. If he did not want any supports, he could produce unrestricted."

90 CENT SUPPORT

"The Farm Bureau proposed to keep the average support price of 90 per cent of the last three years market price," West said. "The wheat price would be tied to the support price on corn with adjustment for difference in feeding quality. It proposes to freeze existing government surpluses and work out a long - term pay out."

What does the Texas Farm Bureau president think of the surpluses? He said:

"I think these surpluses are the greatest assurance that people are going to have enough to eat, regardless of natural or man - made catastrophe (atomic fallout). Existing surpluses would last only about a year under even strict rationing across the nation."

"Our program would not disrupt normal procedure."

"Mainly," said TFB's West, "it would preserve freedom of the farmer."

His voice resounded with sincerity. He believed in his program. And he went to Temple that afternoon and told them the story, much the same as you read it here.

Dairying -- Part II

10 Operate In County

A STAFF FEATURE

One Of A Series

There are 10 dairy operations in Milam County, ranging in size from 21 cows to the 200 cow Stuart operation being built northwest of Cameron.

Operators of these dairies can best tell how a dairy can function efficiently and profitably.

They are spread across the county in no particular location. The deciding factor seems to be the men who run them.

The 10 dairy operations are: Clifford H. Purdom, Gay Hill, Jerry R. Rek, Rockdale; Hubert McClaren, Marlow; Billie J. Ellis, Cameron; Henry R. Tomasek, Ad Hall; Clyde M. Love, Sharp; Raymond L. Zawadzke, Hanover; J. D. Wolverton, near Rockdale; Jake Doss, Gay Hill; and the new Stuart Dairy, near Cameron.

THE EQUIPMENT A visit at the Ellis operation south of Cameron and the McClaren plant at Marlow showed the following:

The modern dairy has a complete dairy barn with four stalls of feed for every pound of milk. As one man put it: "If the cows don't produce, they don't eat."

There are variations on the Ellis dairy operation. But all the new ones have the new milking barns, complete with metal stalls, concrete floors and separate tank storage rooms.

Farm Home Administration records show that eight dairy operations are FHA financed. Others are not.

But all of the modern operations keep accurate records through tests and production scores on each cow. They are figured so closely that the dairyman knows how much profit he is making on each cow after feed and other costs are figured. It has become science.

PRODUCTION Here are some figures showing annual production. Eight dairies in 1961 produced $248,514 worth of milk and spent $104,375 for feed. And it "ain't all hay."

The state average per cow per year is 5,990 pounds. The Milam average is 11,834 pounds per year per cow, more than twice as much.

The average new dairy operation costs around $60,000 including a $12,000 dairy barn when equipped and cows averaging $469 a piece.

From these figures, it looks like dairying is becoming real agribusiness in Milam County. And next week, we'll take a third look at how it fits into the overall Milam economy.

"Boy meets Girl"

HEY FELLAS! Chances are you'd be surprised to know how many "guys an' gals" have met each other "right in the middle of a church aisle!"

It might have been before or after a church service—perhaps in Sunday school, or during the "social hour". But the important thing is that they met in a very commendable place.

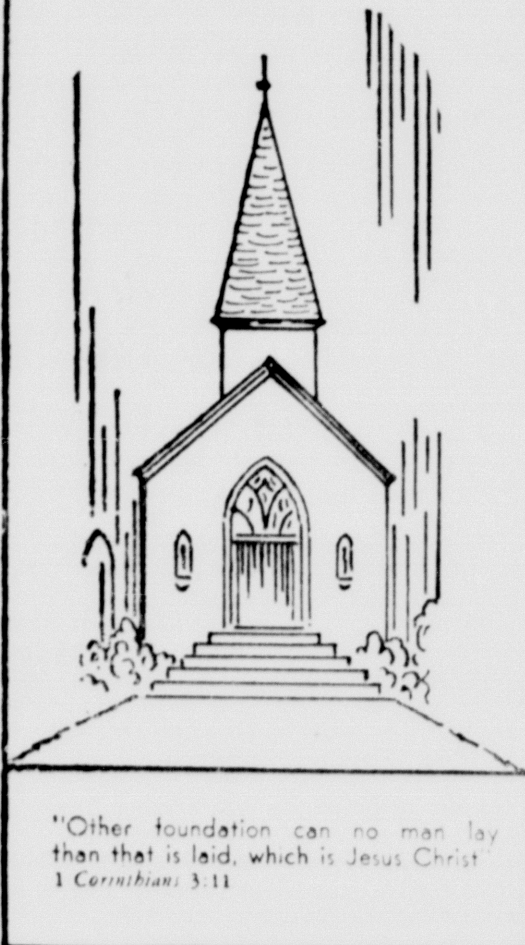

Romance first bloomed, then flowered in beautiful fashion, and later they began life together at the marriage altar.

The point is that both were spiritually prepared to contribute toward establishing and maintaining a home because the church had been given opportunity to help build the right kind of character for both.

God established the home. He established the church also. He intends that each shall complement the other—they are so vital to one another.

Young man, young woman, you will be wise to keep this in mind as you think about romance and marriage.

Give yourself the chance you deserve by giving the church the chance it deserves. Be faithful in attendance and commitments.

Fishing techniques have been in constant evolution during the past decade.

While spinning tackle still is holding on strong, the current trend is marked by the determined comeback of casting and fly-fishing outfits.

Probably the foremost reason is that those who started fishing with spinning rigs now want to try something new and more demanding.

At first it was thought that spinning was a cure - all for fishing. Now that the picture is clearing it is evident that spinning tackle has a definite place in fishing, just like fly-fishing and casting tackle. But it isn't the all-around tool that will do everything.

Often an angler can take fish on fly tackle when everything else fails. There's something about the colorful little cork bugs and the enticing flies that really appeal to fish.

This type of tackle is particularly effective when fished on small, fast-running streams.

But there's one overlooked fact about bass bugs. They will work effectively on Texas' deep, man-made reservoirs. And a fisherman hasn't really lived until he duels a pugnacious bass on a delicate little wand of a fly rod.

Many people have the misconception that learning to use a fly rod is a difficult assignment. Actually, the basics are quite simple. Usually a person becomes proficient enough to go fishing after an hour's practice in the backyard. Unlike spinning or casting outfits the fly fisherman casts the line rather than the lure. With this type outfit balance is all important, particularly correct balance between line and rod.

All fly rods come marked with the type line they require. However, it has been my experience that there are usually a mite on the light side. It is better to go to the next largest line than the one designated on the rod.

The reel on the fly rod is simply a device to hold the line. The type reel, either automatic or single-shoot, is purely a choice of preference.

Fly rods today are priced within the budget of anyone's pocketbook. In years past the custom-made bamboo rods were quite expensive, but nowadays fiberglass rods not only are relatively inexpensive, they are also dependable and cast adequately.

A basic rig includes a fly rod and a level line. But the more expensive tapered lines are easier to cast and therefore easier to learn to use. The difference in price is well worth the money.

A bass bug line, for example, is a forward taper, with the heavier portion of the line being out on the end.

A line to be used in the northern states for trout fishing is a double taper, slim at both ends with a heavier belly in the middle, made to put a fly more delicately on the water on the cast.

Long, tapered leaders, at least six to nine feet in length, are less prone to spook wary fish. A typical one tapers from about four to six pound test where it attaches to the line, down to about two pound test on the tippet.

In fly casting the one important thing to remember is timing.

Some loose line is stripped off the reel and laid out in front of the caster. Then the rod is brought back smoothly to the 1 o'clock position, where the caster pauses until the back cast completely straightens out, before he starts forward smoothly. It is best to watch the back cast at first to make sure it completely straightens out before coming forward.

If the line strikes the water before the bait does, then the caster is not allowing the back cast to straighten out before bringing the rod forward.

To become a real good fly caster requires practice.

But it is one of the most rewarding and satisfying ways to fish. Many times also it is the most productive.

There's something about those little topwater bugs and those imitation flies that sunfish and bass can't resist. Probably because they so closely resemble the fish's favorite food.

Anyway, it's fun to fly fish.

4-H WEEK PLANNED

March 3-10 has been designated as 4-H Club Week in Texas. The same week will also be observed as National 4-H Club Week.

Korean Veterans Advised By VA About Schooling

Many of the 140,000 Korean veterans in night school or part-time training under the Korean GI Bill, should accelerate their training if they wish to complete all their courses before their benefits terminate, P. J. Mims, manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Waco warned.

Under the law, a Korean veteran's termination date is eight years from the date of his discharge or release from active duty. In no event may he take GI training beyond January 31, 1965, Mims said. Veterans may not be paid GI educational allowances after the termination dates have passed.

As an example, Mims cited the fact that a veteran discharged in 1955 faces a termination date next year, in 1963. A veteran discharged in 1956 has a termination date in 1964.

Mims suggested that all veterans taking Korean GI Bill training check their own individual termination dates. If the termination is in 1963, or 1964, they may consider accelerating their program by taking additional courses or by attending summer school.

Veterans who attend school at night after working at their regular employment during the day should give this problem careful consideration, Mims advised, because their training is slower and extends over a longer period of time. They should complete essential courses before their deadline.

January Bond Sale

Totals $48,125 For

Milam County

January Savings Bonds sales in Milam County totaled $48,125, according to Henry Siebman, Chairman of the Milam County Savings Bonds Committee. This figure represents 12.7 per cent of the 1962 sales goal of $380,000.

Total January sales in Texas was $15,310,631, which is 9.3 per cent of the 1962 state goal of $165,100,000.

"The highlight of our 1962 sales activities will be the Freedom Bond Drive held in May and June Chairman Siebman reported.

"The Freedom Bond Drive will be the first nation wide Savings Bonds campaign held since the Korean War. This campaign was personally inaugurated by President Kennedy at a meeting in Washington on January 19. I feel confident that the citizens of the County will respond to the Freedom Bond Drive and our 1962 Savings Bonds goals will be met," Siebman concluded.

CHEMICAL USAGE

Research workers of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station have found that chemicals can be used successfully for controlling the grain sorghum midge. Timing of application is very important.

Miss Helen Margaret Flinn

Assoc. Dean To Speak At Dinner For Texas Exes

Miss Helen Margaret Flinn, associate dean of women at the University of Texas, will address Milam County Texas Exes at their banquet Friday, March 2, 7:30 p. m. at the Cameron Country Club.

Tickets for the banquet will be available at $2 each through Jack Prescott, Leonard Allen and Dana Kestenbaum.

Before joining the University staff in 1936, Miss Flinn taught in the Cameron public schools. At the University of Texas she has served as assistant dean of women, resident social director in one of the women's dormitories and as social director for the University residence halls for women.

She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Southwestern University, a Master of Arts from the University of Texas and has done advanced study in personnel work at Columbia University.

Miss Flinn is a member of the American Association of University of Women, national and state organizations of deans of women, and other professional and honor organizations.

Contributions For

Screwworm Control

Milam Counties screwworm fly and brucellosis program is now underway and Bill Arthur, program treasurer, announced that county stockmen had contributed $4,300 to the program.

Arthur reminded stockmen who have not contributed to the program to contact their local chairman, the Milam County Farm Bureau or deposit their donation in their local bank to the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation.

John S. Batte, county-wide drive chairman, said it is hoped the screwworm can be controlled through this program by 1963.

New Construction Budget Outline Told By Lone Star

DALLAS — Lone Star Gas Company and wholly-owned subsidiaries — Lone Star Producing Company and Lone Star Gathering Company — have announced an all-time high initial construction budget of $35,431,000 for 1962.

The 1962 budget figure exceeds the companies' 1961 construction expenditures by approximately $5,500,000 according to L. T. Potter, Lone Star president. The three companies are headquartered in Dallas.

Potter stated that $13,685,000 will be invested to maintain and strengthen natural gas distribution facilities in and around the 467 communities, towns and cities Lone Star serves in Texas and Oklahoma.

The expenditure covers customer service lines, meters and regulators, extensions, fortifications and replacements of distribution mains; warehouse and office building construction and remodeling and numerous other customer service facilities.

Presently Lone Star is serving 890,286 residential, commercial and industrial customers and the company expects to add about 22,600 new customers in 1962. The current customer count reflects 878,538 natural gas and 11,748 liquefied petroleum gas customers.

The Lone Star Producing Company has budgeted $9,320,000 for drilling and deepening of oil and gas wells, new leases, seismicographic service and other exploration costs, Potter said. Such activity is scheduled to take place in East Texas, Oklahoma, West Texas, West Central Texas, South Texas and Mississippi.

The Gas Company's Transmission division will apply $9,441,000

The 9.8 miles of U. S. Highway 77 under construction east of Rockdale and south to the Lee County line will boast a base of some 28 thousand tons of Rockdale Slag Aggregate.

The material is a by-product of burning lignite at the Sandow Power Plant, located adjacent to Alcoa's Rockdale Works.

The move from the slag aggregate stockpile to the construction job will involve about 2,500 truckloads.

This is the first major use of slag aggregate as a base material for U. S. highway construction. Slag aggregate was used in a similar project to pave Farm Road 908 south of Rockdale and McDade Farm Road 2116 south of Alcoa Lake.

Slag from the power plant also is used successfully as the aggregate for hot mix paving and for slurry seal coating.

For several years Rockdale Slag Aggregate has been used for haul road construction in the power plant's fuel area. According to IGC engineers, the use of slag for improved haul roads in the area has proven highly successful and could point the way toward an economical surfacing of unpaved county and city roads. They point out the ease of application and the minimum of machinery required to do the job.

toward extensions and replacements of transmission and gathering pipelines, undergoing gas storage expansion and development, and additions to gasoline plants, compressor stations and dehydration plants

by C. L. Carson, Manager

USE OF AREA CODES

To help speed up your long distance service, arrangements have been made to provide you with a handy reminder about your area code. Four stickers with the Cameron Area Code Number 817 will be mailed with your February telephone bills. You can easily detach the stickers from the card and mount them on the number plates of your telephones. Mounting instructions are on the card.

These stickers will help remind you to include the area code when you give your telephone number to people in other cities. It will mean faster service for people who call you. They will appreciate this courtesy.

The area code is actually part of your long distance telephone number. Each area is identified by a three-digit area code. No two local numbers are alike within the same dialing area. So when you combine your area code and your local number you have a long distance number unlike any other.

Put down the area code number on your frequently called long distance numbers as the operator gives them to you. For instance when you want to place a long distance call, all you have to do is say, "Operator, I want Houston, Area Code 713." Then give her the Houston telephone number. Wait to give your telephone number until the operator asks for it. You'll find that your call will go through faster than ever.

Please attach the sticker to your telephone number plates. If you do not receive yours or would like more stickers, just call the telephone business office, OX 7-4601.

If you would like to have the area code of telephone numbers you call frequently, the Chief Operator will be glad to give them to you.

SHOPPING BY PHONE

I have a neighbor who has three small children, all of them under five years of age. As most of you mothers can appreciate, raising a lively young family is quite a chore. My neighbor's three youngsters keep her pretty well tied up, too. "How do you do it?" I asked her the other day. "Of all people, you should know," she replied. And then she started a commercial I should confess that it was music to my ears.

"When you have to do everything for three small children, it's not easy to leave the house for essential shopping," she said. "I've really appreciated our telephone. I can do all my shopping and visiting in a matter of minutes without ever leaving the house."

"I couldn't have done a better job if I had written the script myself," I told her.

Shopping by phone saves wear and tear on tires and shoe leather -- and people -- and will give you more time to do other things that crowd your busy day. Why not try it.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

Humble Seeking Re-Election As County Judge

In announcing for a second term, as county Judge in the 1962 Democratic Primary Don Humble said "I would like to sincerely thank all the people who have cooperated with me so well in my first term. I do not say this in order to comply with the old tradition adhered to by public officials, but rather out of a knowledge that this office cannot be run properly without the assistance of many other persons."

"I have tried at all times to do honor to the office and, although all of my actions may not have been wise, my mistakes have been honest ones. If re-elected, I shall continue in the future to run the office on the basis of honesty and integrity, accepting at all times suggestions from interested persons for the betterment of the County. I will continue to support Milam County's highway program to the limit of available funds and I will continue to use all reasonable measures to increase Milam County's financial stature. Milam County is in a good financial condition and with the help of these other persons responsible for this, I will try to keep it that way."

"I feel that my first term in office has been successful, and with the help of the people of the County, I look forward to an even better second term, if I am re-elected. The duties of my office are such that I do not have the time to properly attend to them and at the same time personally solicit every person's vote. I hope that the people of Milam County will take this announcement as a personal solicitation of their help and also take it as an invitation to come to me with any problems concerning the County at any time. I assure each of them that they will receive my cooperation at all times in working out these problems to the best interest of all concerned when possible."

ABE MARTIN, TCU's disciple of the soft - nose, was giving opinion to the cause of serious football injuries.

"I'm convinced," said the Christians' answer to Andy Griffith, the rash of injuries is brought on by those who coach the so-called hard nose defense."

He is entitled to his opinion. It, however seems strange Abe would brave statements after the celebrated hatchet job his run-away tackle, Bobby Plummer, did on Texas' All - America Half-back James Sexton.

Some coaches, Abe, believe dirty, not hard - nosed play to be the major contribution to the present rate of maiming.

Take the Plummer incident, and it could be called worse. Those of strong stomach should view the film if there remains doubt the 240 - pound kicked the willowy 160-pound Saxton scrambling his brain sufficiently that he does not recall the final 55 minutes of that great upset.

When a giant changes direction to pulverize a helpless ball - carrier after the whistle has blown and he's getting up off the ground, could it be unintentional?

Give us the hard - nosed, jaw-to-jaw or do - or die. Leave the dirty place to the Russians. It better fits their personality.

That's A-OK . . .

There was national and perhaps international jubilation over Lt. Col. John Glenn's successful triple-orbit of the earth Tuesday.

His safe return after 80,000 miles orbiting the earth and nearly five hours doing it brought the U. S. even with Soviet Russia's space performances.

We noticed a genuine empathy among scores of viewers around Cameron while television traced the Marine colonel's historic pathway through the ionosphere. His success will undoubtedly and deservedly arouse new confidence in the competition of East vs. West.

Political overtones of Col. Glenn's mission are inescapable. Here was a counter to the propaganda challenge of Russia's Titov. Here was an American version of the conquering hero of space and its technology.

Perhaps it is another reason that Soviet Russia is making overtures of peace . . . if they can be believed. Perhaps this is another step, not step, for communism. And perhaps, we hope, Cuba is the next.

That Glenn risked his life and the U. S. her prestige before the world is a significant gain. Russia did not, save for the tracking devices her spaceships could not deceive.

But Glenn's success was America at her best. With the doors open, the risks calculated, the world watching, he came back as he left, a hero.

How do they say it? That's A-OK!

Is Less Production The Cen-Tex Answer?

The goal of the Freeman Farm proposal seems incompatible with the efforts of Central Texas's Blackland Income Growth program.

With one hand, government is giving an assist in Milam and Central Texas in dairying. Texas has up to present imported a great deal of its milk.

And now controls on milk production are being proposed when, in effect, a milk industry is abuilding in Milam County.

Under the BIG movement, Central Texas agriculture is getting a thorough boost through the spread of methods of production in cotton, grain and other basic commodities as well as dairying.

This situation is hardly lightened when government proposes to curtail agriculture production further.

We are not so certain that a "big picture" proposal to reduce surpluses has a lot to do with improvement in Cen-Tex agriculture. If we need milk in Texas, why shouldn't it be produced in Texas? We ask the same questions if there is a market for other commodities produced locally, such as grains to feed dairy cattle and livestock.

What must be decided, it seems, is how to get international supply and demand to balance. The rigors of reducing production further would be immediate and contrary to the working farmer's income improvement in Central Texas.

Texas Newsmen Quiz Candidates

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — Texas newsmen quizzed seven candidates for governor at a session of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism society, and fanned early-season campaign sparks.

Gov. Price Daniel took the center position, weathering attacks from nearly all the other candidates, both democratic and republican. All candidates took part except John Connally and Edwin Walker.

A little fire even developed between the three republican candidates. Harry Diehl of Houston said Jack Cox of Breckenridge was "not a Republican — just a conservative candidate."

But two days later, Diehl with drew from the race, leaving Roy Whittenburg as the only republican primary opponent for Cox.

Don Yarborough and Marshall Formby attacked the Daniel administration as "tired" and "lacking vigor". Daniel came back with a recital of his five-year accomplishments in education, industrialization and other fields.

Will Wilson's approach was that Daniel's entry collapsed the Connally bandwagon by splitting Vice Pres. Lyndon Johnson's organization, and that the only way to get an uncontrolled candidate was to elect Wilson.

Candidates got in more punches in answering tough questions posed by nine newsmen. All of Daniel's opponents made the Governor's unprecedented four-term try a central issue. In the course of questions, Daniel came out for a two-term limit, but with four-year terms of governor instead of the present two.

FRIENDLESS INSECT
A big, hatted crowd of ranchers gathered at an Austin hotel to get more facts on the stockman's dream — the elimination of the screwworm.

There was no one there to defend the insect.

Ranchers learned from Floridians how that state was swept free of this costly scourge by a dramatic program. Florida ranchers covered the state with sterile male screwworm flies thus wasting the female flies' single mating period. First airplane distribution of flies in South Texas started the day of the Austin meeting.

Texas stockmen are raising $3,000,000 by voluntary contributions to match an equal amount of Federal money put up by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The screwworms cost Southwestern ranchers an estimated $40,000,000 a year in losses.

LIVESTOCK RAISERS GET HELPERS

A committee of five legislators held its first meeting after hearing plans of the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation.

Speaker James A. Turman appointed Representatives Ray Bartram of New Braunfels, Steve Burgess of Nacogdoches, Stanley Boyesen of Yoakum, Glenn Kothmann of San Antonio and Gus Mutscher of Brenham to assist the SWAHRF in planning its attack on the screw-worm fly.

HOUSE OF ANOTHER COLOR

Stamford oilman Keith Wehately seemed to get off the track in his campaign for Railroad Commissioner when he told Austin pressmen that Texans should be able to cast a vote on the relation of horse racing to the state.

Wheatley said he is neither for nor against racing, but believes "tax profits from horse racing could do much to aid the old people and the children of Texas."

Gubernatorial candidates are interested in regulating another kind of race. They think limitations should be set on the number of times a governor can run for reelection.

Marshall Formby based his objections to the present lack of limits on the fact that most state projects are operated by commissions whose members are appointed by the governor on a rotating basis. Formby figures that by the end of a second term, a two-time governor has made every state commission appointment and it's time for him to take a rest.

John Connally seconded the charge of commission domination, and said that by the end of a third term, everyone of the more than 3000 commissioners have been appointed by a three-time governor. He promised that he would ask the Legislature to limit a governor's tenure to two terms if he's elected.

MIGRANT STUDY SET UP

State Board of Education appointed R. P. Ward of Edinburg to head a study on the education of children of migrant parents, after Commissioner J. W. Edgar called this "one of the critical problems facing the Texas public school system."

Ward, former president of Pan American College, will develop a guide for teaching these children, who form a large percentage of the enrollment in Rio Grande Valley schools.

LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER

Philosopher Claims What Country, But Not Him,
Is More Machines That Won't Work

Dear editor:

You've heard the expression so often that everybody by now assumes we're living in the machine age, but I doubt it.

According to an article I read in a newspaper which a man handed me in town yesterday in a move to break up a conversation because he said he had to get back to work, President Kennedy told a press conference that "25,000 new jobs will be found every week for the next ten years to take care of workers displaced by machines."

I'm sure he's right about this, but I'll never be able to understand it.

I mean, if a machine is going to come along and replace me, and I have to get out and get another job, what's the advantage in having the machine in the first place. I've always contended that if a machine doesn't throw me out of some work, I ain't interested in having it on the place.

When the four-row plow replaced the two-row plow on the big farms of this country, I figured those big farmers had it made. Now they could do twice the work on twice as much land and continue to work the same hours, burning up twice as much gasoline. Didn't even start fishing as much as I've been doing for years with one-row equipment. I've never been able to understand this type of progress.

If the more the machine replaces man, the more man is going to have to work, we sure could save a lot of gas and oil by re-inventing the forked stick to plow with.

If it's going to take 25,000 new jobs every week to make up for the jobs taken over by machines, and half these replaced workers, for all they know may be put to work building other machines that will replace them month after next, I figure that in ten years every machine in the country may be running full blast but 90 percent of the people will be out of work.

And while I might be in favor of this, I'm afraid the economists and mortgage holders and tax-collectors wouldn't.

What this country needs is a new-type machine that will do only one-fourth the work of the man it replaces. I've got a tractor that will fill this bill, but it's no longer being manufactured.

Yours faithfully,

J. A.

CHEVY II NOVA The frisky family-sized Chevrolet with a low, low price tag. Above right, Nova Sport Coupe.

Like your driving sporty, with quicksilver steering, flat-as-a-pancake cornering, sure-footed traction? Then a Corvaire Monza's for you.

Or maybe the new-size Chevy II is more to your liking. Built for big families and still slips neatly into small parking places. And, with this, the kind of ingenious engineering (new easy-riding Mono-Plate rear springs, for example) that won this year's coveted Car Life Magazine Award for Engineering Excellence.

But say you want to go all-out—to get the full treatment in space, spirit and splendor. Then there's nothing like a Jet-smooth Chevrolet. Makes paying more pointless.

So size 'em up—then save it up—at your Chevrolet dealer's.

See the new Chevrolet, new Chevy II and new Corvaire at your local authorized Chevrolet dealer's

Milam ASCS

Report

By Milam County ASCS

The only way for a producer to hold full eligibility for a 1963 cotton allotment is to plant or release at least 75 percent of his 1962 allotment. If this is not done, it will be lost to the farm and to the county as well.

You may say that you will never be interested in planting cotton on your farm again. But who can say when circumstances will compel one to rent or sell his farm? A cotton allotment attaches an economic value to the farm for purpose of sale or renting.

Your neighbor and fellow cotton producer may have requested additional cotton acreage for this year. You will be helping him out if you release the acreage which you so not intend to use anyway; and he in turn will be helping you by preserving the history acreage for your farm.

Cotton is one of the major cash crops in Milam County and we cannot afford to lose any more cotton history acreage. Let's not lose this source of agricultural income in our county through negligence.

Growers who had no cotton planted or released all their cotton allotment in 1960 and 1961 must, in 1962, plant at least one-tenth of an acre of cotton and release their allotment. Do not lose out for all time by failing to do this.

The final date for releasing cotton acreage is March 2, 1962.

Another date to remember is the final date for appealing your feed grain base or yield, which is fifteen days from the date which appears on your Form 471. Notice of 1962 grain sorghum and corn base, yields and payment rates.

REPORTABLE DISEASES

Reportable diseases in Milam County for the week ending Feb. 17, according to Dr. T. E. Crump, acting director of the Milam County Health Department were 46 Strep throat, four measles, one syphilis, and one gonorrhea.

March 3-10 Set As 4-H Week In Texas, Nation

COLLEGE STATION — March 3-10 has been designated as 4-H Club Week in Texas. The same week will be observed across the nation as National 4-H Club Week.

In his official proclamation covering the weeklong observance, Governor Price Daniel said, "The development of citizens and leaders for America is a high purpose in 4-H Club work."

"The 4-H program stresses the development of head, heart, hands and health as well as teaching the latest practices in agriculture and home economics."

"Since the 4-H program was inaugurated by the United States government in 1914, the movement has spread across our nation and established bridges of understanding to more than 50 foreign countries. 4-H Club members learn by conducting result demonstrations and participating in 4-H activities. By putting into action what they learn, club members improve their homes and communities."

"Voluntary adult leaders working with the club members provide a key to the success of 4-H. Parents and friends of 4-H give support and encouragement to club members. The Agricultural Extension Service of the A & M College of Texas, through county extension agents, directs the 4-H Club program."

"Any boy or girl from ages nine to twenty - one can take part in 4-H Club work. The opportunities offered to 4-H members to grow in citizenship, leadership and practical skills are especially valuable to them, to the State and Nation. 4-H Clubs are a proving ground for the training of future leaders."

"Therefore, I, as Governor of Texas, do hereby designate the week of March 3-10, 1962 as 4-H Club Week in Texas."

Saddle Club Elects Officers

The Cameron Saddle Club elected officers recently for the 1962 year. They are:

President, Zeke (Edwin) Brod; vice president, Prather Lee Ward; treasurer, Joe S. Hickman and secretary Mrs. Chas. E. McDermott. The Board of Directors are Chas. E. McDermott, chairman, Betty Batte, Jewell Barron, Juanita Brod and Jim Barr.

Committees appointed by the president for the year are: Quarter Horse Show, Lelia Hickman; Gaited Horse Show, Chas. E. McDermott; Parade Marshal, Curtis Barron and Publicity Mary Belle Batte.

HEROISM AWARD

There is still time for submitting nominations for the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council's Rural Heroism Award. The deadline is March 1, 1962. Nominations are limited to persons who live in rural areas or communities of 2,500 or less.

County Agents Notes

Animal Health Plan Continues

By J. D. Moore
Milam County Agent

John S. Batte, Bill Arthur, Herbert Fieseler and J. D. Moore were in Austin last Wednesday to attend the official kick-off of the Screw-worm control program in Texas. The first sterile flies were released in South Texas on Feb. 14.

$1,323,607.14 was reported from 153 counties at the Austin meeting. The largest individual contribution was $50,000 donated by the Perry Foundation. Charlie Scruggs, State Chairman, urged all county chairmen, community chairmen and individuals to continue making contacts for contributions in order to speed up the program since weather conditions have greatly favored the fly control conditions. It is now expected to control the screwworm in Texas in 1962.

The goal of 3 million dollars will be reached in Texas and President Kennedy has assured the SWAHRF that Federal funds will be made available to match the Livestock Producers money.

Louis Gilbreath, President of Florida Cattlemen's Association, spoke at the Austin meeting on what the program means to their stockmen. He pointed out that due to the favorable weather, Florida stockmen had to treat animals for screwworm control 12 months each year. Gilbreath is manager of a 30,000 acre ranch and reported that no screwworms had occurred on the ranch since 1958.

Florida has agreed to loan their facilities to Texas in order to help eliminate the costly pests. Local stockmen are encouraged to contact their community chairmen and make their contributions or send them to John S. Batte, Cameron.

BRUCellosis CONTROL PETITIONS CONTINUE CIRCULATION

Petitions for the control of brucellosis in Milam county are being circulated and stockmen are urged to sign for this program. For information pertaining to this program, contact the vocational agriculture teacher in your community or the county agents office in Cameron.

BALE OF COTTON PER ACRE CLUB

To recognize growers who make one bale of cotton per acre and to encourage other farmers to use better cultural methods, radio station WBAP has established the BALE AN ACRE CLUB. Calvin Pigg, WBAP radio Farm Director, is seeking charter members for this club and applications are available from the county agent or from any member of the County 7-Step Cotton Committee. These members are Wilburn Beckhussen, Buckholts; Joe P. Mueck and Anton Moraw, Cameron; E. D. Taylor, Val Verde; Edwin Fuessel and Arthur Thies, Thorndale.

Farmers who harvested one bale an acre on their ENTIRE planted acreage in the 1961 season are urged to fill out an application.

GRASSHOPPER COUNT

Over a half million acres of Texas rangeland is included in the U. S. Department of Agriculture's listing of lands with heavy deposits of grasshopper eggs. Ranchmen are reminded that egg counts indicate that hopper populations could be heavy but surveys this spring will pinpoint the areas where control measure may be required.

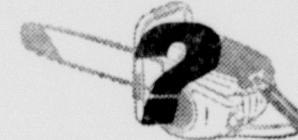

GRASS FIRES

The dry, warm and windy weather has increased the number of grass fires in Texas during the past few days. The Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council urges motorists to be careful when driving through dry range areas.

Heard the word?
We were third in sales in '61. Third!

It's nice to be loved.

Like we've said: "When people like a car they show it." All you have to do is put together a car that's sharper looking, smoother running and a bigger value. That's why Pontiac and Tempest stormed into third place.* Why don't you see your Pontiac dealer (a very happy man these days) and go with a winner?
